■ Peloponnesos - Messinia

The Peloponnesos is one of the most important areas from where our human civilization started long ago. Today the mystic atmosphere, together with the ancient culture, rich nature and agriculture, mostly sunny weather all year around, colorful skies, and ease, could be the start of your new home: a second and healthy life in Greece.

The Messinia area is one of the most developed areas in the South West of the Peloponnesos. Here you will discover the most important ancient remains of human civilization, like Olympia, Sparta and Epidaurus.

■ Kyparissia and surroundings

The 30 km Kyparissian area is one of the less discovered area's of Messinia. With the mountains in the backyard, this area gradually declines to the flat olive tree area and developing coastline.

Infrastructure, facilities and surroundings slowly change into a new area, waiting to be discovered.

■ “Second life in Greece”

“Second life in Greece” is a Kyparissian organization of two lady architects and constructors, who were born and are still living in Kyparissia. They are well known and highly respected in this area for their detailed and tasteful designs and a 100% solid customer satisfaction for more than 20 years.

■ Country houses

All country houses are of unique architectural design. The high quality of workman ship, cooperation, materials and customization, makes every project unique.

All houses are with sea view and are built based on the latest government regulations for construction, safety and comfort living.

■ Apartments

Near the harbor, "Second life in Greece" developed highly designed apartments which are a part of the developing boulevard and harbor. Here you will meet the cooperation between the city developments, the EC and the company's thoroughness way of adapting constructions.

■ New projects special requests

Because of the changing developments for living in West Europe, "Second life in Greece" started, together with the best creators in architectural construction, revolutionary projects in living for the 21st century. In case you have a special request, thematic ways of living, special requests about a plot or interior architecture, we invite you to share your dreams in living with us to let them become reality...
